

Geometrical aspects of last-passage percolation

Leandro Pimentel, Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

In this mini-course we will focus on a solvable last-passage percolation model and show how Busemann functions can be used to study competition interfaces, geodesic forests and coalescence times of semi-infinite geodesics.